Finding New Pangaea: An Evolution Into the Fifth World (Paperback)

By MS Brenda C Duffey

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There are four short stories in this collection entitled Finding New Pangaea. The collection of stories is designed for adolescents aged 12-18, and the main characters are males or females aged 15 or 16. Each of these characters is dealing with loss, finding their identities separate from parents or guardians, cultural identities, gun violence and peer relationships. Finding New Pangaea is the title because the common theme is that no matter the culture or location adolescents share the same feelings of grief and fear as they deal with separation, loss and finding their place in the adult world of the society in which they live. The four stories are: - Springtime Comes to New Pangaea This story is about an Iranian immigrant to the United States who comes with her mother after the Iranian Revolution of 1979. The main character is a sixteen year old female and the story recounts her escape from Iran to Albuquerque, New Mexico with her mother when she was five years old. The brutal murder of her father haunts Rani until she comes to terms...
