

The Cult of Remembrance and the Black Death: Six Renaissance Cities in Central Italy (Hardback)

By Jr. Samuel K. Cohn

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY PRESS, United States, 1992. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In his award-winning study, Death and Property in Siena, historian Samuel K. Cohn, Jr., used close analysis of last wills to chart transformations in mentalities over a six-hundred-year history. Now, in The Cult of Remembrance and the Black Death, Cohn applies the same methodology to fashion a comparative history of six Italian city-states - Arezzo, Florence, Perugia, Assisi, Pisa, and Siena - showing the rise of a new Renaissance cult of remembrance. In 1363 the Black Death devastated central Italy for the second time, causing a detectable shift in notions of afterlife and patterns of charitable giving. Throughout Tuscany and Umbria, patricians and peasants alike abandoned the practice of dividing their bequests into small sums, combining them instead into last gifts to enhance their fame and glory. But this new cult of remembrance, Cohn argues, does not support Burckhardt's thesis of Renaissance individualism. Instead, the new piety grew in tandem with reverence for ancestors and a strong sense of family identity founded on the importance of male blood lines. But rather than retreat into the religious pessimism of earlier times, survivors of the plague would...
