Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Pourquoi Florence, entre toutes les villes de l'Italie, eut-elle le privilege de rendre l'Europe au culte de la pensee, de lui inspirer le gout du beau, de donner le signal du mouvement dans toutes les branches des connaissances humaines, et de conserver si longtemps la suprematie sur toutes les villes de la Peninsule ? En un mot, quelles sont les origines et les causes de la Renaissance ? Les hommes ne peuvent pas toujours exactement analyser des mouvements aussi prodigieux et aussi complexes; s'il y a quelque chose de logique et de naturel dans ce developpement extraordinaire, il y a chez les peuples ou il s'accomplit des dons heureux qui le secondent comme il y a dans le sol une certaine fertilite qui contribue a l'excellence de la moisson. Tout n'est pas le resultat de l'etude, de l'application et de l'economie; il y a de l'intuition, du bonheur, quelque chose d'heureux qu'on n'analyse point. La douceur du ciel, le charme de l'atmosphere, cette grace native dont chaque chose est empreinte, je ne sais quoi d'elegant et de sympathique, qui est le cachet indeniable des hommes et des choses de Florence, ne doit pas etre etranger a une aussi admirable efflorescence dans la Toscane. Les causes efficientes sont multiples; les unes sont directes, immediates et permanentes; les autres sont indirectes, lointaines et purement accidentelles.
