

Prayer in Bible and Talmud (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Nahida Remy

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Prayer in Bible and Talmud Most people think, How strange, nowadays, to occupy one s self with the Bible! It is not strange. Whoever is conversant with Scripture, and knows its beauties, daily discovers new charms therein. All great thinkers and poets have drawn inspiration therefrom. Goethe found in Job, Schiller, in the Proverbs Of Solomon, the most profound stimulus; and who knows to what extent the savants Of other nations are indebted to it? In the fact that nearly every family possesses a Bible, and scarcely any knows its contents, is hidden a problem Of great bearing. It would indeed be an honor able life-task to solve this problem satisfactorily. But now to our theme. Strictly speaking, the Bible contains but one prescribed prayer. In the laws concerning the first fruit Of the earth (deuteronomy xxvi.) we find the command (verse Thou shalt take Of the first fruits (3) And thou shalt come unto the priest (5) And thou shalt commence, and say, etc. Then follow verses 6 - 14, which form an introduction and a historic review. After the...
