Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Heart Throbs and Hoof Beats: Poems of Track, Stable and Fireside Did you ever, dear reader, really love a horse? Have you been one of those fortunate mortals who have lived a portion of their lives out in the gorgeous freedom of God s open country? Have you ever as a child confided your joys and sorrows to a pony or poured out to some equine friend, tried and true, the anguish of your soul? Have you ever looked into those great, limpid, hazel eyes when all the world seemed against you and read therein the promise to share your successes and reverses through the sunshine and shadow of life? If so, then there has come to you that supreme satisfaction that comes from an intimate association with man s best friend, a satisfac tion which can not emanate elsewhere and which all the mechanical things in Christendom can not produce. I have come to look with compassion upon those um fortunate individuals into whose lives there has never come the lasting in? uence of AN old roan mare; possibly she was as white as the drifting snows that hid the hedge rows in winter; mayhap she was as black as the cawing crows that voiced a vigorous protest at your untimely intrusion; perhance she was the color of your own chubby hands in butter-nut time. Be that as it may, a memory of her faithfulness and constancy has abided with you on down through the years and prompted you to purer motives and higher ideals. Undaunted by heat or cold, she served you on festive occasions, and brought succor and relief in the hour of your af?iction. Through the inky blackness of...
