In Their Presence: Best Practices and Stories of Role Models

By Martin Zimmerman

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 184 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.5in. If your profession is the profession of life, this tale of role models in business is better than any bedtime story. In Their Presence: Best Practices and Stories of Role Models is acclaimed as the soul mate of Tom Peters In Search of Excellence, and a treasure for those who seek leadership excellence. Its pragmatic approach distinguishes it from other leadership books. Demonstrating clear and tangible leadership behaviors, this book captures the phenomenon of leadership with insights that transcend the confines of the corporate world. Join author Marty Zimmerman as he takes you on a tour of discovery and learning. From his listening to hundreds of global leaders and executives of varying backgrounds, enjoy the sometimes expected, and often unexpected twists and turns that these leaders provide as they identify the catalysts behind their role model ratings. What are their ways of thinking, behaving, and communicating that earn them the highest acclaim and respect from a tough audience of their employees, peers, clients and their bosses? Whether a leader or doer, this book will challenge you to listen as if in their very presence. Compare what you read to...
